HUNTERDON COUNTY RESIDENT NICOLE GOGER JOINS NEW JERSEY FARM BUREAU

TRENTON, NJ (Nov 30, 2004) -- Nicole Goger has joined the New Jersey Farm Bureau as a research associate on land-use issues, as of October 18, 2004. "Nicole's academic and practical credentials, combining hands-on farming with management, research and policy studies, make her a valuable addition to our staff." says Farm Bureau President Richard Nieuwenhuis.

Goger graduated from Delaware Valley College with a degree in agribusiness, in 2003, receiving a New Jersey Agribusiness Association scholarship in 2001 and a Melda C. Snyder Trustees Grant in 2001 and 2002. During college, she worked for the Snyder Research Farm of Rutgers University, Home Depot and the US Department of Agriculture's Delaware Agricultural Statistics.

Her activities at Delaware Valley College encompassed holding top offices with the National Agri-Marketing Association, student representative on the DVC Dairy Society and membership in Delta Tau Alpha (National Agricultural Honor Society). She has worked with the Hunterdon and Sussex Counties Farmland Preservation Programs, initiating a program to connect school children with local farmers. She resides in Bethlehem Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey.

The New Jersey Farm Bureau is a member organization of more than 19,000 farmers and farm-related entities within the Garden State. It is the only organization solely dedicated to representing the grass- roots interests and directives of its members in educating all levels of government and the public on the farm community's policies and positions. The Farm Bureau also takes a lead in seeking out initiatives, activities and ventures to enhance the profitability of producer members and the ensure the viability of agriculture in New Jersey -- the Garden State for Good Reason.
